

Supplementary Figure 9: Western blots to detect protein levels of muscle transcription factors. (a) Western blots were performed as described in Methods to detect known muscle transcription factors. A lamin B1 antibody was used as normalization control. (b) Quantitation of bands shown in panel a was performed using lamin B1 for normalization relative to 0 hrs.